About Dr Jackson's

Dr Jackson's is a science-led cosmetics brand from the UK creating luxury natural skincare products and organic herbal teas. The products are based on the principles of pharmacognosy (the study of the medicinal properties of plants and other natural substances) and care for All Skin Types in the safest and most effective way possible.

"At Dr Jackson's we take things a little bit further - making sure that, in addition to providing the highest quality ingredients in our clean and safe formulations, we care for both your skin and the planet: We never use parabens, sulphates, artificial fragrances or colouring; All of the ingredients are ethically sourced; Our products are vegan and we never test on animals."

Said in a joint statement by Dr Lori Bystrom PhD, Chief Scientific Officer and Mauro Durant, Creative Director at Dr Jackson's.

About The Beauty Shortlist Mama & Baby Awards

Celebrating 10 years of green beauty this year, The Beauty Shortlist was founded in 2009 by beauty and wellbeing journalist Fiona Klonarides to shine the spotlight on natural beauty and encourage consumers to adopt a greener way of living. Judged by natural health and beauty experts, The Beauty Shortlist Mama & Baby Awards honour the stand-out natural products for mothers, babies and children. This comprehensive annual list of top-scoring ethical brands and gentle organic products spans beauty, pregnancy, health, baby and toddler, planet-friendly cleaners, nutritional products and aromatherapy. The awards are entirely ad-free and sponsor-free.

Fiona Klonarides, founder, The Beauty Shortlist, was voted No. 4 in this year's Natural Beauty News "Who's Who in the Natural Beauty Industry" Top 25 (UK)
